INSPECTION STANDARDS

CLUB INSPECTION

The Club Inspection forms part of the official opening programme and provides an opportunity for each club to demonstrate pride in its appearance, discipline, organisation, and commitment to Pathfinder and Adventurer standards. Inspection will take place immediately following the Opening Parade.

PURPOSE OF THE INSPECTION

The inspection seeks to encourage:

- Pride in the Adventurer and Pathfinder uniform.
- Consistent adherence to official uniform standards.
- Good grooming and personal presentation.
- Orderly club formation and discipline.
- Respect for the Adventurer and Pathfinder Ministries.

GENERAL INSPECTION AREAS

Judges will assess the following:

- Correct and complete Class A Uniform
- Neatness and cleanliness of the uniform
- Correct placement of insignia and badges
- Personal grooming and overall appearance
- Club formation and discipline
- Club flags and banner
- Christian attitude and respect throughout the inspection process.

UNIFORM STANDARDS

All participants taking part in the inspection must wear the official Class A Uniform.

Uniforms should be:

- Complete and correctly assembled.
- Neat, clean, and well pressed.
- Worn with the correct headgear.
- Accompanied by clean, polished black footwear where applicable.
- Display the correct badges and insignia in their official position.

GROOMING STANDARDS

Participants should present themselves in a neat and professional manner.

Judges will observe:

- Neatly groomed hair.
- Clean fingernails.
- Clean, polished shoes.
- Overall personal appearance.
- A neat and tidy uniform.

CLUB FORMATION

During the inspection:

- Clubs should remain in their assigned formation.
- The Club Director, Deputy Director, and Marshal should take their designated positions at the front of the club.
- The colour party should be positioned at the front, followed by the club banner.
- Guidons should be carried by the designated captains.
- Other staff members should occupy their assigned positions within the formation.

INSPECTION PROCEDURE

Clubs must be assembled before the judges arrive.

- The Club Marshal should call the club to attention when instructed.
- Participants should remain in formation throughout the inspection.
- Leaders and members should follow the instructions of the inspection team at all times.
- The Judges' decisions are final.

OUR STANDARD

Inspection is not simply about appearance, it reflects the values of the Adventurer and Pathfinder Ministries. A neat uniform, disciplined formation, and respectful attitude demonstrate preparedness, unity, and a desire to honour God in every aspect of ministry.

ASSESSMENT NOTES

The inspection evaluates more than the uniform itself. Judges also assess the club's discipline, organisation, grooming, formation, and overall presentation.

Clubs should ensure that all members are correctly dressed in the official Class A Uniform, with the appropriate badges, insignia, and accessories, while demonstrating respect and Christian conduct throughout the inspection.
